Who we are

We are an independently owned, family operated hotel, with experienced friendly and helpful staff.

We all work together as a team to provide guests with a enjoyable experience, whether they are staying in one of our 26 beautifully styled rooms, having a meal in our dining room or restaurant, or relaxing with a pint in our 18th century oak lounge bar .

Our aim is to under promise and overdeliver on guests' expectations, we aim to make every guest's experience a memorable one, whether it's their 1st visit or their 30th. Our unique setting at the base of the British camp and the surrounding hills with their spectacular views, help make the hotel so popular with locals, as well as guests from further afield. We take pleasure in the number of regular returning guests.

We pride ourselves on the fact that we stock and use a wide variety of local produce, this is evident to see if you browse our suppliers list. Supporting local businesses is something we are very proud of and we host numerous local community and professional functions.
